

88°

Scattered Clouds

H: 90° L: 74°

Weather | Traffic

Friday, June 19, 2015

Welcome to myajc.com

Sign In / Register

Credible. Compelling. Complete.

RELIGION

Prayer service for Charleston at Our Lady of Lourdes

LOCAL GOVT & POLITICS

Ellis: Vendors obligated to return calls, but not to give to campaign

LOCAL

Charleston shooting suspect stands before judge

LOCAL GOVT & POLITICS

Ellis trial: Vendors can keep contracts regardless of

LATEST HEADLINES

BREAKING NEWS

Dylann Roof family releases statement

HOME / TRAVEL

COVER STORY

Tahiti Calls: Lost in time on Tikehau

Posted: 12:00 a.m. Monday, May 25, 2015

By Anne Z. Cooke - Tribune News Service

TIKEHAU, The Tuamotu Islands — There's nothing quite so blue — vibrantly, rivetingly, blindingly blue — as the blue of the lagoon on Tikehau, an hour's flight from Tahiti, in French Polynesia. Unless you're suspended above it, looking down.

Read the complete story...

The story you're reading is premium content from The Atlanta Journal-Constitution. Subscribers get total access to all our in-depth news, digital editions and exclusive premium content. You can now also buy a 24-hour digital pass or 7-day digital pass.

AJC Print subscriber - I've already registered my account.

Sign In

AJC Print subscriber - I need to register my account for digital access.

Access Digital

Read MyAJC.com now - 24-hour digital pass

99¢ for 24-hours

advertisement

In this Section

Glynn Airport could see larger aircraft in its future

Great Smoky Mountains not just for climbers

'The Shining' hotel to feature maze inspired by movie

Wet 'n Wild Orlando closing in 2016

A weekend in Exeter, England

Hotels are going keyless, and bypassing check-in counter

The beauty of Death Valley

Crazy, brave or something else? Technicians brave heights for St. Louis Arch inspection

Record airline profits help pay for posh LAX lounges

5 places to enjoy two-wheeled fun